Mon, 30 Apr 2018 07:36:00 GMT - Newly available in paperback, this groundbreaking publication the first full-scale study of the face in contemporary photography announces the death of the conventional portrait and the birth of a new approach to representation. In challenging accepted notions of the photographic portrait, these images offer up a provocative critique that makes us think again about a deceptively familiar subject. They may be alluring, touching or frightening but these photographs are never less than riveting.
