- Although Perilous Glory does not ignore naval affairs altogether, naval warfare receives rather skimpy treatment compared to the wars and campaigns that took place on land. For example, the land campaigns of King Ramesses III (1192- 1160 BC) are discussed in some detail in the opening pages of the book. However, not a word is said about the fact that Ramesses III's reign also witnessed the first known salt-water battle in history.
