Fri, 18 May 2018 14:17:00 GMT - The first song, "The Rose and the Briar," is based on the ballad "Barbara Allen." The Oboe introduction presents a filigree pattern which runs throughout the song. With each verse, the filigree is varied to reflect the images in the lyrics: the buds of May; the dying Sweet William; Barbara's indifference (and dancing); hard-hearted Barbara Allen; and her eventual lamentation.
